Dear Potential RE-fest Sponsor:

It seems like each time you pick up a newspaper these days you read headlines about high energy prices and the harmful effects of carbon emissions. Now there is an event that focuses on the positive - positive ideas, positive actions, and positive changes.

The first annual Southeast Minnesota RE•fest Sustainability Fair will be held in Austin Minnesota on September 20, 2008. The event will be a celebration of green living, energy conservation and renewable energy.

The family fun day will be filled with workshops, exhibitors, musical entertainment, children's activities, artisans of local goods, food vendors. Participants will leave feeling empowered with ideas on how their actions can have a positive impact on the environment and the reduction of carbon emissions.

We are certain you will want your organization's name associated with this exciting event and we would like to invite you to become a sponsor by making a financial contribution. Please consider a level of participation below and complete your sponsorship by returning the enclosed "Sponsorship Form" along with your check.
